COURSE DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

This course examines tourism as a global industry. Through the analysis of tourism impacts, both positive and negative, students will understand the interrelatedness of the tourism industry. Examining international tourist behavior and culture, students will gain global awareness and knowledge. Students will gain a global perspective by investigating the history and globalization of international tourism, as well as learning about local and global tourism organizations. Students will be challenged to become globally engaged by promoting tourism that is responsive to the needs of host communities.

This is a global learning (GL) course that counts towards your global learning graduation requirement.

POLICIES

Please review the FIU’s Policies webpage. The policies webpage contains essential information regarding guidelines relevant to all courses at FIU, as well as additional information about acceptable netiquette for online courses.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS & SKILLS

One of the greatest barriers to taking an online course is a lack of basic computer literacy. By computer literacy we mean being able to manage and organize computer files efficiently, and learning to use your computer’s operating system and software quickly and easily. Keep in mind that this is not a computer literacy course; but students enrolled in online courses are expected to have moderate proficiency using a computer. Please go to the "What’s Required" webpage to find out more information on this subject.

Please visit our Technical Requirements webpage for additional information.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATION

Please visit our ADA Compliance webpage for information about accessibility involving the tools used in this course.

Please visit Blackboard’s Commitment Accessibility webpage for more information.

For additional assistance please contact FIU’s Disability Resource Center.

COURSE DETAIL

COURSE COMMUNICATION

Communication in this course will take place via Messages.

Messages is a private and secure text-based communication system which occurs within a course among its Course members. Users must log on to Blackboard to send, receive, or read messages. The Messages tool is located on the Course Menu, on the left side of the course webpage. It is recommended that students check their messages routinely to ensure up-to-date communication.

Visit our Writing Resources webpage for more information on professional writing and technical communication skills.

ASSIGNMENTS

There will be quizzes, discussions and a class project. Please see the course calendar for due dates.

DISCUSSION FORUMS
Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

EXAMS

There will be two exams that may include true/false, multiple choice, matching and essay questions. Exams will partially assess global perspective and global engagement. If a valid reason keeps a student from completing an exam at the scheduled time, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the professor prior the exam.

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the "Practice Quiz" from each computer you will be using to take your graded quizzes and exams. It is your responsibility to make sure your computer meets the minimum hardware requirements.

Assessments in this course are not compatible with mobile devices and should not be taken through a mobile phone or a tablet. If you need further assistance please contact FIU Online Support Services.
